Abstract

The present project is the creation of a blog on reviewing 10 Joko Anwar's films. The success of Pengabdian Setan has shown that Joko Anwar film has the quality to compete in international industry. However, lack of appreciation and support from domestic people resulted in lack of attention from the world to Indonesian films despite their quality to run in international film industry. The project is aimed to inform and promote Joko Anwar films to the reader. The method in conducting this project is qualitative method. The data were collected through library study and observation. Theories about film reviews, writing techniques, and online writing are used as a guide line in conducting the project. The result of this project is a blog of reviews with a short biography of Joko Anwar. The present project is intended for the audience to appreciate and support Indonesian film industry. The audience of the blog are expected to know more and interest to watch Joko Anwar's films and other Indonesian films.
